

STEAL THIS POSTER

(June 5th to 13th)

Saturday June 5

- 2:30 LIVE MUSIC: THE HOT BISCUIT. A prescription for your blues. LIVE MUSIC with local blues musicians Jack Cook, Bob West, Dan Jacobovitch, Dave O'Burn, Cliff Butler and R. Le Gault.
- 8:00 THE MOULDY FYGGE. Val Golding and a special guest, Gary Mercer of KUOW's "Jazz Anthology" compare notes and play rare jazz recordings.
- 9:00 KRABGRASS. Damned near the onliest bluegrass on the raydecoh. Host Dennis Flannigan contends that 'Grassers are a superior sort of people. Listen and join.

Sunday June 6

- 8:30 SUNNY SIDE UP. Live radio for children, produced by volunteers of all ages. With Don and Libby.
- 9:30 MEMORY LANE. Frank Olin takes you back to the twenties and thirties, with old 78's from a mammoth collection.
- 12:30 LIVE MUSIC: LEFT EAR. Host Jay Stickler brings you some of his favorite music — Steve Lacy, Betty Carter, and others — and JAZZ from the KRAB music studio with Denny Goodhew, reeds; Jim Knapp, trumpet; Steve Sanders, bass; and Steve Clover, drums.
- 7:30 SURVIVING IN THE PATRIARCHY. Programming produced for women, by the women of Amazon Media. Help them and the rest of us to survive.
- 8:30 INTERNATIONAL NEWS SUMMARY. News reports about international developments culled from distinguished national and international journals. Jim Lobe produces this hour, the only news source of its kind extant in this part of the country.
- 12:00 SYNCOATED ECSTASY. Roswell plays jazz, and a recently recorded Gil Scott-Heron poetry reading in honor of the 51st anniversary of the birthday of Malcolm X.

Monday June 7th

- 2:00 A RETROSPECTIVE OF OBNOXIOUS AMERICAN MUSIC IN HONOR OF THE BICENTENNIAL, with host Greg Palmer. Only on KRAB.
- 6:00 LIVE MUSIC: THE IRISH-AMERICAN STRING BAND. From the music studio, with Frank Ferrel, Mark Graham, and Mike Saunders.
- 9:00 CHINESE RADIO. A program of words and music for Seattle's Chinese community, produced in Cantonese Chinese by the Chinese Media Committee.
- 11:00 SPAGHETTINI. With the inimitable Leila Gorbman.

Tuesday June 8th

- 6:30 LIVE MUSIC: EARLY MUSIC. With Stu Witmer: Renaissance and medieval music. Today's special guest, classical guitarist DAVID BURGESS performs a Bach lute sonata and Spanish pieces for guitar.
- 10:00 EARTH MUSIC. Bill Noll and Sonny Masso host a program of Latin and salsa music.
- 12:00 LIVE MARKET RADIO. What better place to capture the spirit of exuberant hucksterism than the marketplace? KRAB presents the live sounds of Seattle's hub — the Pike Place Market — via a phone line from a remote broadcast booth at the corner of Western and Pike. If you want to be a part of this, come on down — it's your market, and your radio station.
- 7:30 BALTIC'S BOP STOP. Captain Baltic sails through various jazz-at-the-Philharmonic sessions, Bird recordings, and jams of the 40's and 50's.

PROGRAMMING OF SPECIAL MERIT FOR THE MARATHON

Wednesday June 9th

- 6:30 LIVE MUSIC: EARLY MUSIC. Appearing (so to speak) on the show this morning is PETER BERNHARDT, a guitarist playing material ranging from Renaissance pieces to Scott Joplin rags. With Stu Witmer.
- 10:00 EARTH MUSIC. "Scientific data suggest a direct relation between the Brazilian samba and uncontrolled philanthropy." Brian Hodel tests the hypothesis.
- 12:00 LIVE MUSIC: MARKET MARATHON. A break in the Market Madness occurs at 1:00, when former KRAB music director Tom Berghian drops by with a National steel guitar and some pre-war blues.
- 7:00 JUNTA TO JUNTA: ON A JUGGERNAUT BUILT FOR TWO. Jim and Tom Lobe, producers of international affairs programming on KRAB, explore world events from a slightly different perspective. Call and nominate your candidate for international blunder of the week.
- 8:00 LIVE MUSIC: SWINGLAND EXPRESS, or: SALMON CITY AUGMENTED. A broadcast set by John Holte's SWINGLAND EXPRESS, a ten-piece Seattle group that has successfully recreated the big band sound of the twenties and thirties. Also participating is SALMON CITY, who played up at KRAB last fall, and is a hot jazz spinoff from the larger group. LIVE, LIVE, LIVE.

Thursday June 10th

- 9:00 ENERGY 1990: THE DAY FOR DECISIONS. From the chambers of the Seattle City Council, of the conclusion of the Energy 1990 process, the creation of Seattle's energy policy for the next fourteen years. In this crucial meeting of the Committee of the Whole, the Council will adopt a load forecast, adopt a conservation policy, adopt a generation policy, and decide whether City Light will become a partner in the construction of two nuclear plants. There will follow, at
- 5:30 AN ANALYSIS OF SEATTLE'S NEW ENERGY POLICY. Participating will be WILLIAM JESKE (Chief Economist, Pacific Northwest Bell); MARTIN BAKER (Executive Director of the Washington Environmental Council); DENNIS SALVON (Seattle Chamber of Commerce); SUE GOSLINE (Energy 1990 Citizens' Overview Committee); and DR. JOE ROTHBERG (Chairperson, Citizens' Overview Committee). Live and direct from our studios.
- 6:15 LIVE BULGARIAN MUSIC. From the KRAB music studio, plus recordings from the Balkans. This particular ensemble specializes in the ancient "money hora."
- 10:00 THE ROLE OF THE ALTERNATIVE MEDIA IN SEATTLE. Who are the alternative media? Whom do they hope to serve? To what goals do they aspire? A live, in-studio panel discussion, to which you listeners are invited to phone in questions and comments at 325-5110. Participants include DAVID BREWSTER (Editor, the Weekly); ALEC FISKEN (publisher, the Sun); ANN-MARIE MITROFF (from the women's newspaper, Pandora); WALT CROWLEY (of the defunct underground newspaper, the Helix); and a representative from the Northwest Passage.

Friday June 11th

- 12:00 LIVE MARKET RADIO. Our final day from the Pike Place Market. If you haven't come down and put in your bit, now's your chance. We'll be near the corner of Western and Pike.
- 3:00 THE FOLK SHOW / TRUEGRASS. Three hours of good reasons for spending your money; much more bluegrass. Folk music from our studios. Hosted by Thane Mitchell, Bill Scott, and Phil Andrus.
- 7:00 TALENT SHOW: Do you have a talent that is just not commercially viable? Can it be conveyed through a microphone? If not, no matter — our skilled professional commentators will be standing by to breathe color into even the most mediocre trampoline act. Just give us a call at 325-5110 so we know you're coming, and then you can tell your mother.
- 10:00 VICTOR 'N' BALTIC: The newest and oldest Friday night jazz programs collaborate on a late night extravaganza.

Saturday June 12th

- 1:00 CAROLINE BIRD: WOMEN AND THE FUTURE. Ms. Bird, a former editorial board member of "Newsweek" and "Fortune" magazines, recorded at the University of Washington last month. She gives a hard-as-nails, tough, practical talk on women making it in a man's world.
- 2:00 LIVE TRADITIONAL JAZZ. With the Cornucopia Jazz Band, live from the music studio at KRAB.
- 4:30 COLLECTIVES THAT WORK. A panel discussion on collectivism as a viable alternative to traditional hierarchical structures in enterprises commercial and otherwise. Participating will be members of various Seattle collectives, including Morningtown Restaurant, the Soup and Salad Restaurant, Red and Black Books, the Little Bread Company, and others. Call in questions and comments at 325-5110.

Sunday June 13th

- 8:30 SUNNY SIDE UP. Greatest hits from this children's show, with Don, Libby, David and Zoe.
- 12:00 KRAZ READS THE COMICS. With leftist and Shakespearean Frank Krasnowsky.
- 4:30 READINGS FROM THE PEOPLE'S ALMANAC. Things you never, ever knew.
- 5:30 LIVE MUSIC: LIBBY BURKE brings her group to KRAB, singing songs by Ellington, Proter and Gershwin.
- 7:00 WE: WOMEN EVERYWHERE. Feminist news and commentary, produced by the Lesbian Feminist Media Collective.
- 8:00 KRAB BRINGS YOU THE GRAND FINALE. Who knows what exactly will happen on this one? Dr. Robotnor, breathing hard and probably laughing too much (this is Serious Business!) leads a down-to-the-wire affair of hoopla and fol-de-rol as KRAB winds up this, its first marathon for 1976. Been holding out? Ridden with guilt? This is Last Chance Saloon Radio, from the KRAB "I'm OK, You're OK" Corral. Don't miss this opportunity to keep free radio on the air in Seattle.

KRAB Seattle's unique
107.7 FM radio station
